Notes to the IFRS consolidated financial statements at 30 June 2019

Note 1. General information and accounting methods

1.1. General information

Socfinasia S.A. ("the Company") was incorporated on 20 November 1972. The registered office is located at 4, avenue Guillaume, 1650, Luxembourg.

The Company holds participations in companies that operate directly or indirectly in South-East Asia, in the production of rubber and palm oil.

The Board of Directors was held on 18 September to examine and approve the consolidated financial statements for the half-year ending 30 June 2019.

1.2. Accounting framework

The interim financial report for the period to 30 June 2019 has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34. This financial report does not include all of the information required by the revised IAS 1 concerning the annual financial report.

The accounting and calculation methods adopted in the interim financial statements are identical to those used in the annual financial statements for the year ending 31 December 2019.

On 1 January 2019, the new IFRS 16 - Leases replaced IAS 17 - Leases. The new standard describes how to recognise, measure, present and disclose leases. The standard provides a single lessee accounting model, requiring lessees to recognize assets and liabilities for all leases unless the lease term is 12 months or less or the underlying assets has a low value. An examination and valuation of the Group's leases indicates that most of these contracts meet the definition of a lease under IFRS 16. The Group applies the modified retrospective approach to transition, and will therefore not restate comparative data. The impact of adopting this new standard has further been explained in Note 4.

1.3. Use of estimates

These financial statements must be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements for 2015 and, in particular, note 1.26 concerning the use of estimates in preparing the consolidated financial statements according to IFRS. The Group's management has had to use assumptions based on its best estimates, which affect the book value of assets and liabilities, as well as the book value of income and expenses recognised during the period. Depending on changes of these assumptions, or changing economic conditions, the amounts that will appear in the Group's future consolidated financial statements may differ from current estimates. Sensitive accounting methods, under which the Group has used estimates, mainly concern the application of IAS 19, IAS 2/IAS 41, IAS 16 and IAS 36.

In the absence of observable data within the scope of IFRS 13, the Group has considered an alternative model for measuring the fair value of agricultural production based on local production conditions and costs. By its very nature, this method is more volatile than measurement at historical cost.

1.4. Seasonal nature of the business

The Company's revenue and operating income are seasonal. Palm oil and rubber production is influenced by external factors such as climate, location and the biological nature of the palm and rubber trees. The palm activity is more productive in the first half of the calendar year, whereas the rubber business is more productive in the second half. The extent of this seasonality can vary between years.

1.5. Exchange rates

The following exchange rates have been used to convert the consolidated interim accounts:

1 euro is equal to:	Closing rate		Average rate
	06/2019	12/2018	06/2019	06/2018

At 30 June 2019, the change in the net book value of property, plant and equipment, as compared to 31 December 2018, also comprised of depreciation of EUR 5.3 million, and translation differences of EUR +2.1 million.

Note 4. Recognised adjustments when applying IFRS 16 - Leases

The group adopted IFRS 16 - Leases retrospectively on 1 January 2019, without restating comparative figures, as permitted under the standard's transitional measures. Reclassifications and adjustments arising from the new rules on the treatment of leases have been adopted at the opening of the period beginning 1 January 2019.

Following the adoption of IFRS 16, the group has recognised user rights and lease liabilities in the Statement of Financial Position, having previously recognised them as standard leases under the principles of IAS 17.

Lease liabilities have been measured at the present value of outstanding payments, discounted at the incremental borrowing rate as at 1 January 2019.

Right-of-use assets have been measured retrospectively, as if the new rules had always been applied.

The change of accounting method affected the following items on the Statement of Financial Position at 1 January 2019:

- right-of-use assets: increase of EUR 5.8 million

- deferred tax assets: increase of EUR 0.1 million
- lease liabilities: increase of EUR 6.4 million

The net impact on profit and loss reported at 1 January 2019 was a decrease of EUR 0.5 million.

In applying IFRS 16 for the first time, the group has used the following simplifications, as permitted by the standard:

- use of a single discount rate for a portfolio of similar contracts
- treatment of leases with a remaining term of less than 12 months at 1 January 2019 as short-term leases
- exclusion of initial direct costs from the valuation of the right-of-use assets on the date of implementation

Note 17. Segment information

In accordance with IFRS 8, the information analysed by the management is based on the geographical distribution of political and economic risks. As such, the segments presented are as follows: Europe, Cambodia and Indonesia.

Income in Indonesia is derived from sales of palm oil and rubber, in Cambodia solely from sales of rubber, and in Europe from the provision of administrative and management support services for plantations, and the marketing of products outside the Group. The Group's segmental income represents the operating income.

The figures presented are taken from internal reports. They do not take into account any consolidation adjustments or IFRS restatement, and are therefore not directly comparable with the amounts shown on the consolidated balance sheet and income statement.

Note 18. Post Balance Sheet events

There is no material event to report. However, it should be noted that the Group's investments in South-East Asia may be subject to political and economic risks. Local directors and managers monitor changes in the situation on a daily basis. Production potential of plantations remains intact, and cost prices are kept as low as reasonably achievable.
